

Borden's
UNWEETENED
EVAPORATED
MILK

Pure as milk
can be

With the cream left in!

GREENVILLE YOUTH ARRESTED FOR WASHINGTON POLICE

James B. Lee, 20, alias Dynamite, a Greenville young man, was taken back to Washington, D. C., Saturday by Inspector O'Brien of the Washington police force for presentation in court there on a charge of grand larceny.

He has been in the navy and it is charged that just after his discharge last June he stole a quantity of clothing from some of his buddies. The Norwich police have had a warrant for him since last June, but the youth did not come back to Norwich till Friday. He was arrested the next day by Officer Delaney and the Washington police were notified.

WEDDINGS
Hart-Bishop

At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Grace Episcopal church, Yantic, Miss Lucy, daughter of Mrs. Sophia Bishop of Guilford, and John Roy Hart, son of Mrs. Agnes Hart of Yantic, were united in marriage by Rev. MacLean Goldie, minister of the church. At the appointed hour to the music of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin played by the bride's uncle, George Spence of Guilford, the wedding party approached the altar, led by the ushers, John Bishop, brother of the bride and Paul Chivers, nephew of the bride, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Marion Bishop of Guilford, who was very attractive in pale pink organdie with black hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Following them were two little flower girls, Miss Natalie Bailey, Miss Ruth Hardenbrook, niece of the bride and groom respectively, and the bridesmaids, all in white dresses with pink and blue poke bonnets, carrying baskets of flowers.

Following came the bride simply gowned in white crepe de chine with satin trimming, and wearing a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies if the valley. Before the altar the bride was met by the groom and his attendant, William A. Taylor of Clinton Mass., a brother-in-law of the groom and the minister who performed the ceremony. The double ring service was used, the bride being given in marriage by her brother, George Bishop of New York.

Following the ceremony relatives and close friends of the couple went to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert J. Bailey, where a reception was held. The home was simply decorated with autumn foliage.

At the reception the bride couple were assisted in receiving by Miss Sophia C. Bishop and Mrs. Agnes Hart. Refreshments were served. The wedding gifts which were displayed were many and beautiful.

The bride's gift to her maid of honor was a string of pearls and to her flower girls pine. The groom's gift to the best man and ushers was silver.

During the early afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hart left amid a shower of confetti for an unannounced wedding trip.

The bride's traveling suit was of peacock blue duvetine with hat to match. Upon their return from their honeymoon they will reside at 77 Church street.

James-Perkins

Miss Madeline R. Perkins, daughter of Mrs. Hattie R. Perkins of Lenox street, Hartford, and Harold S. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. James of Mansfield, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Hartford by Rev. Dr. James J. Dunlop, pastor of the Fourth Congregational church. The house was decorated with autumn foliage and chrysanthemums. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Stephen B. Oakes sang I Love You Truly and Mr. Oakes played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the bride party entered the room. The bride wore embroidered blue georgette crepe, trimmed with rose ribbon, and carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. James will live in Mansfield. The bridegroom served overseas for 15 months in the A. E. F.

Ankle Broken in Carriage Accident

Mrs. W. D. Thatcher, of 43 Tanner street, Norwich, suffered a broken ankle Saturday when the king bolt of the carriage in which she was riding broke and threw her out. Mrs. Thatcher was just driving into the driveway at her home when the accident happened. In the carriage with Mrs. Thatcher was her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Ricker, and two grandchildren, but they escaped injury although shaken up. Dr. C. C. Gilder-sleeve reduced the fracture.

Mrs. Arthur T. Palmer

Laura Curwell, widow of Col. Arthur T. Palmer, died Oct. 27 at Binghamton, N. Y. Burial was in Stoneington Saturday.

Some 3,500 persons in Ireland are employed in the ginger ale industry.

Strong Nerves

Pure organic phosphate, known to Lee & Osmond and most other druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, is what nerve-exhausted, tired-out people must have to regain nerve force and energy. That's why it's guaranteed.

"You Can Do No Better Than Buy Our Worst."

No Salad Complete Without

Thumm's
Home-Made Mayonnaise

THUMM'S
DELICATESSEN STORE
40 Franklin Street

THE DIME SAVING BANK OF NORWICH

The regular Semi-Annual Dividend has been declared at the rate of 10 per cent. a year from the earnings of the past six months, and will be payable on and after November 15, 1921.

FRANK L. WOODARD, Treasurer.

VARIOUS MATTERS

All Hallow's eve.
Light vehicle lamps at 5.15 o'clock this evening.

A continuation of the mild weather is promised.

Summer returned Sunday, the mercury rising to 64 degrees in the shade. Since Saturday's parade the Norwich streets are strewn with confetti, shreds of serpentine and the like.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Towse of Canterbury gave a Halloween party to their Plainfield friends.

A large addition is being built to the home of Charles Minch, of West Thames street, overlooking Trading Cove.

At Park Congregational church the ushers during October have been Teller E. Babcock and William L. Fletcher.

A big Boston truck carried the A.M.B. patrol regalia from the Masonic Temple in Norwich Sunday to Providence.

Repairs are being made to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Learned, 180 Broadway, damaged by fire recently.

Methodist churches through the United States were asked to consider Sunday the subject of Law Enforcement.

Sunday evening cars were parked on either side of McKinley avenue in front of the armory to a point above Broad street.

The patients at Norwich state tuberculosis sanatorium will have their customary Halloween party this (Monday) evening.

Hallowe'en was anticipated Saturday evening by groups of ghosts and witches, which flitted about the residential streets.

During Sunday afternoon the reading room at the Otis library was in charge of Miss Marie I. Stamm. There were 118 visitors.

Hundreds of starlings congregated in the elm in Broadway church grounds, Sunday afternoon, for a very noisy convention of their own.

Notice was given Sunday that the Norwich C. E. Union is to hold its meeting at the Central Baptist church, Saturday afternoon and evening, November 13th.

The cakes and the chicken pie left from the Shriner's feast at the armory Saturday evening were divided between the Backus hospital and the County Home.

The letter received recently by Sedgewick Woman's Relief corps from the State Soldiers' Home at Noroton came from Charles Spalding, not Mrs. Charles Spalding, as stated.

A Hartford Sunday paper pictured the board of managers of the Connecticut Society of Colonial Dames, including Miss Louise B. Welch and Mrs. Eben Learned, of Norwich.

At the mission to be held in St. Patrick's church beginning Nov. 6th, congregational singing is to be a feature of the evening exercises. The first week of this mission will be for the men.

Preparations on the part of retail stores for the coming holiday business is well under way and, from the way business has improved recently, merchants say they count on good Christmas totals.

Among effective decorations for the Shriner's parade Saturday were the festoons of palms of all nations among the trees at the residence of Former Mayor and Mrs. Frederick L. Osgood, on Washington street.

Residents of Moosup, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. LaFreniere observed their fifth marriage anniversary at their home Sunday, the 23rd. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Moses LaFreniere, with their son, Ernest, and daughter, Cecile, of Occum.

The musical numbers arranged by Organist Frederick W. Lester for the Sunday morning service at the United church included the beautiful anthem by Chambers, "If Ye Walk in My Statutes," given by the quartette, Mrs. Charles T. Bard, Miss Doris West, Louis A. Wheeler and J. Benjamin Brown.

The United States Civil Service commission announces an examination on November 2 for United States game warden, either sex, age 25 to 45, for two vacancies in the Bureau of Biological Survey, Department of Agriculture, one in Washington, D. C., and the other in California, each at $1,500 a year.

LEBANON PASTOR RESIGNS—

TRUSTEES PROMPTLY ACCEPT
A special from Lebanon to a Hartford Sunday paper said:

A special meeting of the members of the Lebanon Congregational church Friday night accepted the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Dr. H. Campbell. It is said, "without regret."

The members of the board of trustees are Otto L. Fultz, Leslie Clarke and Elmer Geer. Mr. Fultz stated Saturday that that his resignation came in dated Oct. 25 and no reasons were given other than that it take effect immediately. No money was lost in accepting the resignation.

"It is the general sentiment of the members of the congregation that Lebanon needs a new Congregational minister," remarked a member of the congregation. Others had words of praise for the retiring clergyman. The salary paid the pastor is $1,000 a year with parsonage. Mr. Campbell this summer moved from the parsonage to his farm in another section of the town. He has a wife and one son.

He is but 35 years old and a member of the Willamantic Ministers' union. Trustee James Pultz stated Saturday night that the pulpit of the church is now open to calls and that Sunday Rev. Willis C. Norris of Willamantic, a retired Methodist clergyman, would preach.

MOST ORDERLY CROWD

FILLED NORWICH STREETS
As far as the police department was concerned the big holiday crowd of Saturday was a very orderly and quiet one. There were no burglaries, no assaults, arrests or anything to mar the pleasure of the day. The only matter that came to the attention of the police department was the loss of a motorcar from a Rhode Island car parked in the New Haven station roadway.

Everyone left town with his pocket-book and watch safe. In such a large crowd that thronged Norwich Saturday there are generally a number of minor accidents. But Saturday proved an exception. There were no hurry calls for ambulances, stretchers, doctors or nurses and as far as could be learned, not even a collision between any of the hundreds of automobiles that whizzed here and there through the streets.

Captain Dennis K. Twomey headed the police platoon in the parade. In the platoon were Officers Charles Ebbets, Henry Fenton, Patrick Murphy, Michael Carroll, Joseph Farrell, John Dombrowski, John Carroll, Myron Morgan and Charles Perry.

All Saints'-All Souls' Days.
Tomorrow (Tuesday), All Saints' day, a holiday of obligation in the Catholic church, masses in St. Patrick's will be at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock, the last a high mass. Tuesday, All Souls' day, the masses will be at 5.30, 7 and 8, the last a solemn high mass of requiem for the relatives and friends of those who have requested a remembrance of their dead.

PERSONALS

John T. Cheney of Moosup was a visitor in Norwich during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tatro and son Hector of Sterling were in Norwich over the week end.

Henry Lee and daughter of Guilfordville attended the teachers' convention in Norwich Friday.

Miss Mabelle Scott of Norwich, a former Plainfield teacher recently visited Miss Agnes Allen there.

Miss Bertha Ramage and Mrs. Edward R. Ramage of New Britain, are the guests of relatives in this city.

Raymond Mitchell of Attawapung, who has been ill in Norwich for several weeks, is improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashworth and son Paul of Danielson were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Armstrong of Cliff street.

Francis T. Diggins, who has returned to Norwich from New Hampshire, is at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Shahan on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Winchester and daughter Lois of Williamstown spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Winchester of Norwich.

Ed. Edward Della, of the Providence Fire department and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dion, and sister, Miss Mary Brown, moved from Providence and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Culver of Fowler avenue.

Mrs. Clark R. Chapman and little sons, Charles and Frank, of Hamilton avenue, ill with scarlet fever at Backus hospital, were all making most encouraging recovery Sunday. Mrs. Chapman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hall, of Lincoln avenue.

Y. M. C. A. GET-TOGETHER

DISCUSSES MAN'S INFLUENCE

Starting with the passage in Genesis, "Am I My Brother's Keeper," a very interesting discussion was held at the local Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at the weekly "Get Together." After a lively song service, scripture reading and prayer, the topic was taken up, and many in the audience took active part which naturally made the hour interesting and profitable. Among the many points brought out in the discussion were the following: That even though a man desired to, it is practically impossible for him to live an isolated life; even the hermit is ministered unto by someone; the scripture, Romans 1:7, "No man liveth unto himself" is as true today as when it was written by the inspired writer. No man is so independent in money or position that he does not need the help of others; the richest man depends upon the miner, the farmer, the mill hand etc. Every man is responsible to an extent for the happiness of others, for as I am dependent upon other for my happiness so must I recognize that I owe a contribution to the happiness of the other fellow. A man's influence is twofold, positive and negative; the only influence often does harm. A man has a conscious and an unconscious influence, and he is responsible for both. God will hold every man responsible for the influence he exerts in the world, as indicated by the words of Jesus, "It were better that a millstone be hanged about his neck, and that he was cast into the midst of the sea, than that he offend one of these little ones. No man has right to do as he pleases, if in any way he interferes with the happiness of others, therefore, it is a rare occasion when a man has a right to drink intoxicating liquor, for generally speaking, in doing so he makes others unhappy, and also does himself an injury. While eating among the masses of the poor, a man who probably not send a man to hell, yet probably no man who smokes would advise a boy or young man to begin. Profranity was termed the most foolish of habits, that it does not give even momentary pleasure, and it is a direct sin against God. The passage in Thessalonians 5:21-22, was suggested as a good motto for men to live by: "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good; abstain from all appearance of evil."

At the conclusion of the discussion, a pleasant social period was enjoyed, and light refreshments were served.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Patricia Hinchey

The death of Mrs. Ellen Adelaide Hinchey, wife of the late Patrick Hinchey, occurred at her home, 108 Oakdale street Sunday morning at two thirty o'clock after an illness extending over a period of six months.

She was born in Straubing, Germany, the daughter of Godfrey and Maria Seaman. She was the last child of the family to survive.

Mrs. Hinchey was the mother of thirteen children, ten of whom survive, Joseph D. of New York city; William J. of Branford, Conn.; Thomas P. of Winstone, L. I.; Mrs. J. E. Shea of Elehurst, L. I.; James P. of Porto Rico, and Daniel J. Patrick S. Mrs. J. J. Gleason, Mrs. J. A. Desmond and Mrs. D. J. Barry of Norwich. There are also surviving twenty-seven grand children and five great grandchildren.

FUNERALS

Annie Loudone

The funeral of Annie Loudone, aged 3 years and seven months, was held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loudone, No. 464 Main street. Burial took place in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The child died Friday following an illness with diphtheria. There are four other children in the family. Undertakers Cummings and Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Roscoe R. Storer

Mrs. Ruth (Whittemore) Storer, wife of Roscoe R. Storer, died suddenly on Thursday at their home, 210 Park street, in West Roxbury. She was born in Norwich, Conn., forty-eight years ago. She was the daughter of N. Hoses and Ida Whittemore. Mrs. Storer went to Boston as a young girl and was educated in the schools there.

She was married twenty-three years ago. Surviving here, besides her husband, are a son, Robert W. Storer, who is a student at Harvard, and a brother, Murray Whittemore, who resides in San Francisco. The funeral was held Sunday.

Quality in Gym Tests

Much interest is being manifested by the boys attending the Y. M. C. A. gym classes in a gymnasium contest known as the all-around ability test. Seventeen various gymnastic and athletic events are included in the program and any boy making acceptable records in all events is awarded an emblem to be worn on his gym shirt. Thus far the following boys have qualified for the emblem: John Wilson, James Fenton, Buhl Charter, Eli Seagle.

Food Sale Realized $55

The Parish Aid society of Christ Episcopal church held a food sale at the home of G. V. Ponderson on Broadway on Saturday from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., from which was realized $55. The committee in charge included, Mrs. Thomas K. Thorne, chairman, Miss Mary E. Richards, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss Mabel E. Webb, Miss Helen Robinson, Miss Katherine Kent, Miss Martha Osgood, Mrs. Channing M. Hunting, Mrs. Charles Chandler, Miss Lillian Stetson and Miss Kate Radd.

Germany's Mistake

Germany's mistake has been in making her mark instead of earning it—Boston Herald.

SHRINERS' PARADE STARTING FROM MASONIC TEMPLE

SPHINX TEMPLE SHRINERS PRESENT

BEAUTIFUL HALLOWE'EN CEREMONIAL

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew

by the float The Powers That Be, with Lieutenant Governor, Templeton and Mayor Lerou seated on it. Norwich division of Sphinx Temple, Noble William R. Stevens commanding, came next in line, about 270 strong. Palestine Temple band of Providence in costumes of black and gold, with drum corps in green and red Turkish costumes led the way for a big marching body of Palestine Temple of Providence and Pyramid Temple of Bridgeport.

108 Candidates.

Preceded by Tibbs' band of this city, came the second division, the candidates, of which there were 108, with Judge Nelson J. Ayling as marshal of the division. The opening display was the Greenville Pirates, a chariot of great hidden beauty and built especially with an idea of comfort. In this vehicle rode the two pirates, Nobles John W. McKinley and Andrus Peterson. The candidates were in charge of Noble Harry B. Ford and were in three bands, called the Shadrachs, Moschachs and Abednegs. They were gotten up as firemen, two of the bands in red coats and the other in white coats with black caps. The Shadrachs pulled along an old hose reel on which was the sign "It's Great To Be a Shriner," and four of their members marched in the lead as chiefs with cabbage head fire trumps in their arms.

A full sized and able Billy goat drew